Analyses the impact of television on daily life, focusing on both the concepts and theories of the medium. This book also analyzes the way in which televised entertainment has radically altered human perceptions of place and time, multiplied opportunities for indirect social experience, and fueled the collective imagination. Despite her increasing concerns about the exploits marking her boyfriend's mid-life crisis, sharp-tongued southerner Miss Julia launches a motorcycle fund-raiser to save her housekeeper's home from being lost to the schemes of a greedy landlord. Reprint. 100,000 first printing.

New York Times bestselling author Patti Callahan Henry delivers an engaging novel about a South Carolina woman who goes back home to face the past—and discovers herself. Meridy Dresden was once a free-spirited, fun-loving girl. All that changed when the boy she loved was killed in a tragic fire. Since then, she alone has carried the burden of a terrible secret. Now, years later, married to a wonderful man and mother of a teenage son, she is shocked to learn that a childhood friend is being blamed for that long-ago fire. Fearful but determined, Meridy returns to the South Carolina Lowcountry and summons the courage to make a decision that may destroy her well-ordered life, her family's reputation, her contented marriage, and everything she's worked so hard to protect...including her heart. "Brilliant. Powerful. Magical. Do not miss this book."—New York Times bestselling author Haywood Smith

Since 1952, the Vintage Sports Car Club's annual Pomeroy Trophy Competition has been a unique motor sport event that pitches roadgoing cars of any age against each other in a light-hearted effort to determine which is the best ever touring vehicle. The complex handicapping system designed to equal things out is explained and in around 275 photographs the most recent fourteen editions of 'The Pom' - as it is affectionately known - are recalled. Results showing all award winners are included for each year along with lists of the major trophy winners from 1952 to 2020.
